CSTD London 3rd Annual Supervision Conference

Exploring the Dynamics of Complaints
Understanding more of what happens when relationships break down

Venue: Beauchamp Lodge, London Paddington (www.ccpe.org.uk)
Thursday 6 July 2017
10.00am - 4.30pm

Context
Many professionals, including therapists, counsellors, coaches, supervisors, teachers, doctors, organisational consultants or academics, live with the fear of a complaint being made against them.

On this one-day event, our aim is to understand the forces at work in us, in our professions and in society as a whole when relationships break down. What are the unconscious dynamics at work? What might be the feelings, unmet needs and values that have not had a voice? How can we embrace uncertainty, humility and being human in a way that will help us to move towards a more compassionate, systemic view in the face of inevitable challenges?

Cost: £60, to include teas and coffees.

Organisers/facilitators: The event is the third CSTDLondon Annual Supervision Conference (www.cstdlondon.co.uk). This year we will have contributions from CCPE (www.ccpe.org.uk) Peaceful Solutions (www.centreforpeacefulsolutions.org) and AMED (www.amed.org.uk)

Out beyond ideas of wrongdoing and rightdoing there is a field. I’ll meet you there.
